

This aerial view from Google Earth shows a residential area with a cluster of houses. A red arrow points to a specific location within the cluster, labeled 'Via Scabboni'. The surrounding area includes fields and other roads like 'Via Cernaia Marelli' and 'Via Salvo'.

A two-story red brick house with a white base. The house has a dark roof and a black downspout. There are four windows visible: three on the second floor and one on the first floor. The first-floor window is partially obscured by a bare bush. A small black stool is placed near the base of the house. The house is surrounded by greenery, including tall evergreen trees in the background and a large bush in the foreground. A black metal fence with a concrete pillar is visible in the lower right corner. A white house is visible in the background to the right.
